

Presentation Skills - Fundamentals of Presenting

Course Overview

FOR: People who have very little presenting experience and want to increase their confidence in presenting at meetings or to clients/customers.

COURSE OBJECTIVES:

This course covers the fundamentals of presentations. You will be provided with a format to plan and deliver presentations which are professional. The training style is relaxed and supportive. Feedback will be given on any areas that need improvement. On completion of the course each participant is given their personal DVD to take away with them.

CONTENT:

Planning and Preparation – define the purpose; who is the audience, what do you want to achieve, what format will you use?

Organising the Information – how to organise your key points and the flow of information in such a way that they hold audience interest.

Introduction and Closing – how to plan an introduction and closing which is strong, focused and directed towards achieving your objectives.

Manage Anxiety – learn how deal with nervousness.

Visual Aids – what to use and how to use them for maximum impact.

Personal Presence – understand the 7 components of ‘visual impact’ and eliminate the distractions.

Vocal Impact – it’s not what you say, but how you say it; how to increase the ‘believability factor’ by sounding professional.

Course is 1 day – start 9.00am, finish 4.30pm

Fee: $695+GST per person

Course dates for Auckland during 2012:

09 May, 12 September
